

David R. Bainbridge

Of Counsel

About David

As a senior member of the Business and Corporate Practice Group, Dave's practice has focused on business organization and counseling; loan documentation and secured transactions; accounts receivable factoring; mergers, acquisitions and divestitures; real estate and commercial transactions; and commercial leases. With 38 years of legal experience, Dave represents a diverse group of clients from international Fortune 500 companies to local sole proprietors.

Dave serves as the outside United States general counsel for a privately held company that is one of the world's leading manufacturer of medical dispensing devices. Headquartered in Europe, but with significant US operations, Dave manages the legal aspects and operations of the company's US affiliate, including matters related to commercial transactions, development agreements, supply agreements, real estate, general contracts, procurement, intellectual property and HR matters. Dave's unique position as an "outside" lawyer working on the "inside" has provided him great insight into what types of legal services are most important to a business and how preventative legal measures can be undertaken to protect a business against the unforeseen occurrences, disputes, and difficult situations that all businesses face on a daily basis.

Clients rely on Dave as a trusted advisor to help them with day-to-day decisions that may include exploring new opportunities, managing risks, and resolving complex issues. He is adept at understanding the dynamic nature of business and positioning companies to accomplish short and long-term goals.
