

Angela G. Barchick

Administrator

About Angela

As Firm Administrator, Angie Barchick oversees all administrative, financial, human resource, information technology, and facilities management functions supporting RCO Law's offices in Toledo, Findlay and Waterville. In this crucial role she is responsible for providing timely analysis and reporting accurate information while supporting all strategic and operational functions for the Firm.

Angie joined RCO Law in 2022, bringing with her over seventeen years of legal administrative experience. She previously served as Special Projects Manager, and most recently, as Office Manager, for the Lucas County Prosecutor's Office where she governed the daily operations of over 90 employees and managed agency wide financials.

Angie is a proven professional who enjoys a good challenge and prides herself on being meticulous and thorough. She is no stranger to working under pressure and genuinely enjoys building relationships and managing a team.
