About Marissa

Marissa brings excellent communication skills and a keen eye for detail in drafting estate planning and business documents for the Firm and its clients. With a practice area that continues to grow, Marissa guides her clients on estate planning, trusts, probate, and elder law matters.

Marissa listens closely to the needs of her clients and makes recommendations that ensure that their future plans are appropriately funded, and life-long savings are protected. In her role as a trusted advisor, Marissa brings great compassion to her work. The results can be rewarding in that her counsel can bring great peace of mind to families.

Additionally, Marissa works with local and regional business owners and key employees on succession planning. Her expertise also includes assisting healthcare organizations on internal compliance matters.

Marissa was the 2021 recipient of the Community Service Award for Attorneys 40 and Under by the Ohio State Bar Foundation. One of the ways that Marissa gives back to her community is through her volunteer work with Habitat for Humanity, where she counsels and sets up estate plans for families with new homes.
