Kathleen Y. Murray

Associate

About Kate

Kate Murray supports a broad range of clients as part of the firm's Business and Corporate Practice Group. Kate joined RCO Law as a summer associate in 2020 while a student at The University of Toledo College of Law. She graduated in May 2021, passed the bar months later, before launching a full-time position with the firm.

Kate's dream has always been to build a career serving clients in the legal profession. She earned an undergraduate degree from Bowling Green State University, followed by her Juris Doctor degree (JD) from The University of Toledo College of Law. She brings sophisticated research and attention-to-detail skills honed as former managing editor of The University of Toledo Law Review, earning her JD in 2021.

Her enthusiasm for practicing law continues at RCO Law where she enjoys the Firm's collaborative approach in meeting client legal needs and delivering services.
